A Little Bit About Me

I grew up in the inner city suburbs of Perth before moving to regional Western Australia for my teaching journey. I have constantly been involved in sports – baseball, cricket and softball – as either a player, coach or committee member. My current sporting interest is squash. I enjoy going to live music and art events, and you may sometimes find me exploring a bookstore or a museum.

Educational Background

My primary and high school years were at Aranmore Catholic Primary and College. I have a Bachelor of Business – Accounting and Finance at Edith Cowan University, and I was on my way to completing my CPA before making a career change. I also have a Bachelor of Education – Primary at Edith Cowan University.
